PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

If you're the type of person who can appreciate the quality and precision of a Patek Philip timepiece, or perhaps a Hinckley when it comes to boats. Maybe a Bentley is your benchmark for excellence in design and function. Whatever you use as a measure of quality, when it comes to a home, 89 Fenwood maybe where you will set the bar going forward.

When you approach the front of this custom built home, you immediately sense a state of quality where no expense was spared. The design in and out is that of understated elegance. You'll notice the 100 year quality architectural shingle roof and handcrafted millwork that marries the various textures of this home's exterior: field stone, stucco, and stained cedar shakes.

The gourmet kitchen showcases the finest brands of kitchen appliances, cabinetry and design. A true piece of art. .
